

Ken Boston AO

Dr Ken Boston is a graduate of the University of Melbourne. His early career was in teaching, teacher education and educational administration in Victoria. His subsequent appointments were Director-General of School Education in South Australia (1988-91), Director-General of Education in New South Wales (1991-95), Director-General of Education and Training in New South Wales and Managing Director of TAFE NSW (1995-2002), and Chief Executive of the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority in England (2002-09). He was a member of the Gonski Review Panel, which presented its Final Report on the Funding of Schooling to the Commonwealth Government in December 2011. Dr Boston was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia in 2001 for service to education.